An Introduction to Flanders Lace featuring Sally Schoenberg - Modern Flanders lace is a 19th century revival of a five-holed grounded lace that was made in the 1600's in many parts of lace making Europe. The Flanders lace working diagram can be particularly confusing. At many pins a pair of bobbin pairs are worked. The frequent exchanges of passive and worker pairs crank up the level of confusion even more. In this DVD Sally tames the diagram! She shows how to identify the elements of modern Flanders lace on a diagram and how to use those components to make a piece of Flanders Lace. In this program three edging patterns are used to teach the essential techniques; 5 - hole ground, half of a ground stitch, joining in 2 times, inputs, outputs, snowflakes and the overlapping finish. The skills learned can be used to make the many Old and Modern Flanders patterns that are listed in the book resource list which is also included. DVD $48.00

Bucks Point Lacemaking – Volumes 1 & 2 – featuring Cathy Richardson – 188 minutes. This video covers 1. Little Fan, 2. Honeycomb Ground, 3. Sheep's Head and 4. A Bookmark, PLUS a free pattern to try on your own. DVD $64.95

Chantilly Lace – with Lia Baumeister-Jonker – Newest video from Hensel Productions for those who would love to learn how to work this fine lace. This video provides instruction in the techniques needed to make three edgings in Chantilly lace. A Chantilly bookmark pattern is included as extra practice in applying the techniques presented. One repeat of each edging pattern is worked on camera with pin-by-pin instruction. By viewing this tape from start to finish before beginning to make the lace, one will gain a good understanding of how Chantilly is made. DVD $48.00

Color in Torchon – featuring Jean Leader. This program will show how using colors can transform a simple Torchon pattern and provide endless possibilities for experimentation. The first two patterns are designed to show how pairs move through the lace when using different stitches and techniques. This knowledge is then used to control where the colors move in the following three patterns for an edging, square mat and bookmark. An additional pattern for a square mat is also included. The instructions assume that the lacemaker already knows how to wind bobbins, make a pricking and work basic stitches. But starting, finishing, working ground stitches, spiders, cloth stitch diamonds, roseground, footside edge and two different fans are explained step by step! DVD $48.00

Intermediate Skills in Bucks Point Lace featuring Jean Leader. Jean is a lacemaker, designer and teacher with experience in a wide range of laces. Though basic techniques are reviewed where they occur in the patterns, this is an intermediate level program and you are expected to have already covered the basic Bucks Point techniques. The first pattern is for a handkerchief edging and next comes a pattern for this edging with a cucumber footside. The other patterns are for a bookmark, a hexagonal motif and a small medallion with a butterfly and flowers. An additional pattern for a wider handkerchief edging is also included. New techniques introduced are explained step by step and include tallies in point and honeycomb grounds, a corner where pairs have to be added and later removed, mayflower in honeycomb, cucumber footside, starting and finishing a bookmark, gimp fingers, working a hexagonal motif, holes in cloth stitch and ‘bundling’ pairs at the headside. Running time is 6½ hours. $70.00

Introduction to Milanese Lace – featuring Louise Colgan. This video instructs in the techniques that make Milanese Lace so unique. Scrolling tapes highlighted by decorative stitches are characteristic elements that define the Milanese style. Lacemakers will have the chance to learn a combination of traditional and innovative skills applied in a motif-format using colored threads. The pattern is suitable for those new to Milanese or for anyone wishing to gain more expertise in the essential skills. DVD $48.00

To help, the following lists are the most common threads that can be substituted for each other (eg. All of the threads in list A are comparable).
